

Non-Examination Assessments

2024-2025

NON-EXAMINATION ASSESSMENTS

These types of assessments measure subject-specific knowledge and skills that cannot be tested by timed written papers. There are three assessment stages and rules which apply to each stage. These rules often vary across subjects.

The stages are:

- task setting
- task taking
- task marking

PLEASE ENSURE YOU DO THE FOLLOWING:

- Make sure you have read the relevant JCQ information for candidates documents - Non-Examination Assessments - JCQ Joint Council for Qualifications (NEAs) and social media. Details of these documents are also available on the Examinations section of the Emerson Park Academy - Information for candidates
- Ask your teacher to go through it with you
- Ask your teacher when the assessments will take place
- Ask your teacher when and where the assessments will be
- Make sure you know your deadlines. Ask your teacher if you don't know Emerson Park Academy - Exam Information
- Candidates' work will be marked in accordance with the marking criteria provided by the awarding body

Emerson Park Academy ensures that all centre staff follow a Non-examination assessment policy.

Candidates' work will be marked by staff who have appropriate knowledge, understanding and skill and who have been trained in this activity. EPA is committed to ensuring that work produced by candidates is authenticated in line with the requirements of the awarding body. Where a number of subject teachers are involved in marking candidates' work, internal moderation and standardisation will ensure consistency of marking.

Candidates will be informed of their assessment mark(s) verbally. If you believe that procedures were not followed in relation to the marking of your work, or that the assessor has not properly applied the mark scheme correctly, then you can make use of the appeals procedure to consider whether to request a review of the centre's marking. The appeals procedure policy will be published on the academy website.

Further information regarding the Internal Appeals Procedure can be found on the Emerson Park Academy - Exam Information
